Association of Christian Educators of Louisiana Handbook

Section 1. - Philosophy

Purpose, Vision, History

- 1.1. The purpose of the ACEL is established to bring honor and glory to the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, through athletic and academic competition, to protect the Christian bond of our member organizations, to promote pure, amateur athletic sports, and to foster Christian leadership and fellowship among our students.
- 1.2. The vision of the ACEL is to encourage Christian growth through physical, emotional, technical and spiritual excellence.
- 1.3. In 2010, the Association began as the Louisiana Christian School Athletic Association (LCSAA), a partnership between private Christian schools and Christian Homeschool organizations. In 2012 the Association name was changed to the Association of Christian Educators of Louisiana (ACEL) and the current purpose established.

Biblical, Christian Foundation

- 1.4. The biblical texts that guide the ACEL

(1Cor. 10:31) “Whatever therefore you eat, or drink, or whatever you do, do all to the glory of God.” All activities of the ACEL are directed by the admonition of Paul to the Corinthians, “let all things be done decently and in order.” (1Cor. 14:40)

- 1.5. Importance of Prayer

To practically support our biblical foundation, all ACEL contests should begin with public prayer. The host organization for each contest is responsible to conduct the prayer. The format, style and content of the prayer is determined by the host school. If necessary, the visiting team’s Administrator on Duty should help the host team’s Administrator on Duty facilitate a prayer.

- 1.6. Definition of Christian Competition

To “do all to the glory of God” the ACEL encourages all ACEL organizations to strongly consider the following definition of competition as outlined in the book Inside Out Coaching, How Sports Can Transform Lives by Joe Ehrmann.

“The root word of “competition” is the Latin word “petere,” meaning to search or strive for. It is most often used in the context of striving or searching for something valuable or excellent. The preposition “com” means together. Literally, competition is defined as a “mutual quest or striving for excellence”. Since true competition is a “mutual quest for excellence” there are no winners and losers. Everyone who competes wins. This cooperative sense of competition leads to respect for others, personal and team integrity and justice and fairness.”

This understanding of the true meaning of competition in no way prohibits striving to win. It does mean, however, that in addition to competing to win, we compete to achieve a higher purpose, a “God glorifying” purpose. We compete cooperatively with our opponents to propel ourselves and our opponents to physical, emotional, technical and spiritual excellence. Winning the competition on the scoreboard but failing to promote this mutual “God glorifying” striving for all these aspects of excellence is a loss for all involved. ACEL organizations are exhorted to do all they can to teach their coaches, athletes, and fans this transforming concept.

Section 2. - Responsibilities

In order to instill the purpose, vision and goals of the ACEL the following responsibilities are assigned:

Administrator Responsibilities

- 2.1. The Head Administrator of each ACEL organization must certify on the annual ACEL Membership Renewal Form that the administrator has read and understands the ACEL by-laws.
- 2.2. The Head Administrator of each ACEL organization shall be responsible for the enforcement of the association by-laws and for the instruction of the student body, coaches and school parents in the appropriate by-laws. This instruction is to include the established sanctions for by-law violations.
- 2.3. The Administrator on Duty of each ACEL organization shall attend all ACEL events. Appointed directly by the Head Administrator or Athletic Director, the Administrator on Duty is the official representative of the Member Organization at the league-sanctioned competition. The Administrator on Duty is responsible for the general organization, management and supervision of the organization’s student body and spectators before, during and after each event. The Administrator on Duty shall do all that they can to proactively diffuse and calm tense or volatile situations.
- 2.4. The Administrator on Duty from each team shall work together to handle any issue that arises beyond the scope of the officials’ authority. The Administrator on Duty is NOT responsible for the opposing team and shall not engage correctively with members of the opposing team. Issues with the opposing team shall be brought to the attention of that team’s Administrator on Duty for correction.
- 2.5. The Administrator on Duty may not be a coach or other individual participating in that event.
- 2.6. The Administrator on Duty shall locate and introduce themselves to the Administrator on Duty of the opposing team prior to the beginning of the contest. Failure to do so is equivalent to not having an Administrator on Duty at the event.

- 2.7. The Administrator on Duty shall receive free admission to ACEL events. Administrators on Duty must leave their name and contact information at the gate in order to receive free admission.
- 2.8. In the event that a coach, player or spectator is ejected from a contest by the official, the Administrator on Duty of both the home and away team shall be responsible to report the ejection within 24 hours. Ejections are to be both recorded on the score report and a separate incident report containing the facts and circumstances of the incident plus an outline of the corrective actions or sanctions imposed by the organization. Some minimum sanctions are listed below:
 - 2.8.2. The minimum sanction required for a player or spectator ejected is a one game suspension. That suspension is to be the next contest scheduled or the next sport of participation if during the state championship. If the disqualified spectator is the parent of a team member, within 10 days, that parent must successfully complete the free NFHS Positive Sports Parenting course found at NFHSLearn.com. Proof of completion must be submitted to the ACEL by the organization within 14 days.
 - 2.8.3. The minimum sanction required for multiple spectators ejected from a single team will be immediate suspension of the team until reinstated by the ACEL Executive Board.
 - 2.8.4. Because coaches play such a key role as role models, the ACEL's position is that their involvement in unsportsmanlike incidents should result in more serious consequences. The minimum sanction required for a coach's ejection is to be suspension from coaching the next two games on the team schedule. Additionally, they must successfully complete the online NFHS Teaching and Modeling Behavior course within seven days of disqualification. There is a fee for the course that can be found at NFHSLearn.com. Proof of course completion must be submitted to the ACEL by the organization within 14 days.
 - 2.8.5. Fighting at athletic events will not be tolerated and sanctions in those incidents should be more severe than for other types of unsportsmanlike ejections. Consequently, player disqualifications for fighting carry a minimum two game suspension. Coaches involved in any fight or physical confrontation are suspended immediately until reinstated by the ACEL Executive Board.
 - 2.8.6. The minimum sanction for any person that enters the field of play, court, or competition and engages in a verbal or physical altercation with a contest official, coach, or competitor is an immediate 30-day suspension from the team's contests. This 30-day sanction may be increased up to the remainder of the season at the discretion of the ACEL Executive Board. If the offender is a parent of a student participating in the event, the student athlete will likewise be immediately suspended for seven days. This suspension may be increased to 30 days at the discretion of the ACEL Executive Board.
 - 2.8.7. If the season ends before any suspension can be imposed, they are to be carried over to the next season. Unimposed suspensions in the playoff/state tournament will be imposed the next sport of participation. If regional or state events in cross - country, tennis, or track & field is the next sport of participation, then the suspension will carry over to the following sport of participation.

- 2.8.8. Any player, coach, fan, or staff member failing to leave the court/field in a timely manner after being ejected from the game by the official(s) will cause his/her team to forfeit that game.
 - 2.8.9. Should the ejected individual fail to honor the next game's suspension, his/her team will forfeit that game as well.
 - 2.8.10. All ejections must be reported by both teams to the Executive Director by the next day.
 - 2.8.11. In all the above situations, member organizations are free to impose more stringent sanctions as they see fit.
- 2.9. Should a team not have an Administrator on Duty, the opposing Administrator on Duty must submit an incident report within 24 hours to the Executive Director. Minimum sanctions for failure to provide an Administrator on Duty are listed below:
- 2.9.2. The organization will be censured by the ACEL for a first offense.
 - 2.9.3. It is the position of the ACEL that the purpose, vision, and goals of the league cannot be adequately instilled within coaches, athletes and fans without dedicated leadership by an organization's administration. Therefore, for a second offense, the organization will be fined $250.
 - 2.9.4. For third offense within an academic year, an organization will be placed on probation.
 - 2.9.5. For a fourth offense within an academic year, an organization will be suspended from the ACEL.
- 2.10. Should the Administrator on Duty fail to address or adequately resolve an incident or fail to report an incident to the ACEL, the incident will be reviewed by the Executive Board.
- 2.11. The Administrator on Duty for each game shall be listed on the score report for the game.

 - 5.6.6.2.2. If the coach confirms the incident, the coach will receive a warning if this is the first confirmed offense, or the coach will receive censure from the ACEL if it is the second confirmed offense.
 - 5.6.6.3. Second reported offense reported by a different organization
 - 5.6.6.3.1.1. If the coach denies the incident, the minimum sanction is a warning.
 - 5.6.6.3.1.2. If the coach confirms the incident, the minimum sanction is a warning if the first confirmed offense or censure if it is the second confirmed offense.

- 5.6.7. In all of the above situations, Member Organizations are free to impose more stringent sanctions as they see fit.

To be as clear as possible, actions that are considered customary during game play for each sport are not considered unsportsmanlike by the ACEL. For example, noise and distraction during a free throw attempt in basketball are a customary part of the game and, therefore, not unsportsmanlike. Conversely, it is customary to remain silent during a volleyball serve so making noise in that instance is unsportsmanlike. Songs/chants that do not violate profanity/cursing rules are allowed as long as they do not single out an individual athlete by name, number or distinguishing characteristic. A song/chant used when an opposing player fouls out is allowed as long as it does not reference the player individually. Good natured "trash talk" and ribbing, friendly banter and even respectfully challenging an official's call are all acceptable. It is not considered unsportsmanlike to cheer when the other team fumbles.

The only acceptable action, however, at the end of a game, is for each team to treat each other with dignity and respect, being gracious in victory and gracious in defeat. Celebrating your team does not include disparaging the other team.

Sportsmanship

5.7. Running up the Score in a Lopsided Contest

5.7.1. As an organization based on Christian principles, the ACEL believes that running up the score in a lopsided contest is not good for the winner or the loser of such contests. Head coaches are expected to use wisdom to avoid this if at all possible.

5.7.2. Should head coaches not have the will or ability to control their teams in such matters, the Executive Board will invoke “Mercy Rules” appropriate to rectify the situation with appropriate penalties including technical fouls, ejections, suspensions, forfeits, fines, and removal from the league as necessary.

5.7.2.1. Basketball

5.7.2.1.1. Should the difference in the score of a basketball game reach 35 or more points at any time after the half, the clock shall be run non-stop until the game is over. Exception: The clock shall not be run during time-outs. This will be applied regardless of agreement by the coaches

5.7.2.1.2. Should the score drop below the 35-point mark during the second half, the decision to run the clock shall not be reversed.

5.7.2.1.3. The decision to apply the rule will be made by the referee when he/she has been made aware that the 35-point differential is reached in the second half. This notification should be made during a dead ball situation. Under no circumstances should the game be stopped to notify the officials.

5.7.2.1.4. The referee upon confirming that the differential exists will inform both coaches, and then instruct the clock keeper to run the clock in accordance with the rule.

5.7.2.2. Football. Running clock will be applied when there is a 30-point differential at start of 3rd Quarter. This will be applied regardless of agreement by the coaches.

5.8. A player may not remove a uniform jersey or pants within the visual confines of the playing area. Failure to adhere to this rule will result in sitting out the remainder of the game in which the infraction occurs and the next regularly scheduled game. This shall be in addition to any game suspension resulting from being ejected from the game.

5.9. A player may not leave the visual confines of the playing area during a contest unless ejected from the game or with the express permission of the coach. Any player leaving the facility may not return. Failure to adhere to this rule will result in sitting out the remainder of the game in which the infraction occurs and the next regularly scheduled game. This shall be in addition to any game suspension resulting from being ejected from the game.
